"Madelene had a sad life! Not only was she a foundling, then her adopted mother died after 3 or 4 years, after 10 years of marriage her husband developed schizophrenia (a very powerful inherited disease from her husband's family that hits every generation). This was 1929, can you imagine! She had to put her two kids in the Soldier's and Orphan's Home in Normal, Ill, for about 2 years until she could support them. (why could she not ask any Hopkins for help?) Anyway, she supported the kids as a waitress. She did divorce her husband at some point, her son, Bob, went to WWII at age 17, she remarried, and then her daughter developed schizophrenia! She brought the daughter to her home and the husband said "choose between us" and she chose her daughter. " Cathy Allen 29 Aug 2016
